

Discover Your Learning Style in Music: See, Hear, Do

Take this quick 6-question quiz to identify your dominant learning style—Visual, Auditory, Reading/Writing, or Kinesthetic—and learn how to study or teach more effectively.

1. When you're learning something new, you prefer to:

- ☐ A. Watch a video or demonstration
- ☐ B. Hear someone explain it
- ☐ C. Read about it or write notes
- ☐ D. Try it yourself and figure it out as you go

2. When remembering a phone number or name, you:

- ☐ A. Picture it in your mind
- ☐ B. Say it out loud
- ☐ C. Write it down
- ☐ D. Associate it with a movement or gesture

3. In a class, you enjoy:

- ☐ A. Seeing diagrams, charts, and visuals
- ☐ B. Listening to lectures or discussions
- ☐ C. Reading handouts or taking notes
- ☐ D. Doing hands-on activities or group work

4. When following directions, you prefer to:

- ☐ A. Look at a map or images
- ☐ B. Hear someone give the directions
- ☐ C. Read step-by-step written instructions
- ☐ D. Explore the area and figure it out physically

5. When trying to memorize something, you:

- ☐ A. Draw it out or visualize it
- ☐ B. Repeat it aloud or use rhymes
- ☐ C. Write it down over and over
- ☐ D. Use actions, gestures, or physical repetition

6. You enjoy learning through:

- ☐ A. Visual presentations (charts, pictures, slides)
- ☐ B. Audio recordings and conversations
- ☐ C. Reading and writing essays or notes
- ☐ D. Projects, role-playing, or physical practice

Answers Reveal: Count how many A, B, C, or D responses you selected. The letter with the highest count is likely your primary learning style.

(It's normal to relate to more than one—many people are a mix!)

If you chose mostly:

- ✓ A – You are a Visual Learner. You retain information best through images, diagrams, and demonstrations. Try using color-coded notes, videos, and flashcards.
- ✓ B – You are an Auditory Learner. You learn best through listening, speaking, and discussions. Try using audio lessons, reading aloud, or teaching others.
- ✓ C – You are a Reading/Writing Learner. You thrive on written material. Take notes, use written exercises, and journal what you learn.
- ✓ D – You are a Kinesthetic Learner. You learn by doing. Move, touch, act things out, and learn by physical engagement.

Ready to Learn How to Sing and Accompany yourself at the Piano?

Schedule your FREE discovery call today and let's create a personalized path that fits your learning style and musical goals.

👉 Book Your Discovery Call Here

(Limited spots available—let's make music happen!)

Yuliya B - Piano and Voice Coach

🌐 www.pianoonlineschool.com