Starting fresh can be (scary, fun, exciting). I just started a new journey, and I am so excited about it!

I know this is going to make a big impact for our family and so many other others!

(You, with something you bought - from an Amazon purchase, groceries, a car - anything no story is too small)

I have been sharing Health + Happiness in a cup... and because of that I was able to get (the thing you bought)! What could be better? Sharing happiness, helping people, and earning income doing it! Talk about a dream job!

Don't mind me... just over here hustling like the economy is booming and prepping like it's the Great Depression :p Believe it or not... in some ways both are going to happen. Old systems are going to come crashing down and we are already seeing new ones taking off

(Selfie/family)

Just sitting back down from a long holiday weekend and opened up the laptop to see how my online business is doing... and holy moly!

It's a really powerful thing to take some time off with family and come back to a THRIVING business because it doesn't necessarily take a break when I do. In a time where people have so much uncertainty and fear, I am so grateful to be a part of this community with PROVEN systems and rock solid leadership!

Hmmm... it looks like everything I thought before was wrong.

It turns out you CAN build this business without spamming your social media, hunting down friends and family or cold messaging your 3rd grade teacher ("hey girl"). Apparently, if you plug into a SIMPLE system, have a mentor to show you the ropes and truly love people you can help a heck of a lot of people win!

Busy people are joining our movement every day and already locking in bonuses for their family!

This is NEXT LEVEL!

In case you missed it...at the current rate of 8.9%, this is the highest inflation we've experienced in 40 years!

Adding an additional stream of income to our family doesn't come without some sacrifice. But I'm an incredibly hard worker when I know who I'm working for...the people I love most. I have a goal to help as many parents as I can experience less financial stress and more peace...

Let's go!

If making an extra $500/month without getting another job would mean something to you...

Then it's time for you to take a peek.

Projections are showing that the average household will need to earn $433+ more per month to live the same as they did last year.

There's zero shame in realizing that the economy is changing and a desire to sustain your same lifestyle isn't selfish. It doesn't have to be some life altering story...earning enough extra to maintain date nights, frivolous Target runs, healthy food or...gulp gas is reason enough!

If you're curious how this could fit into your life, send me a message

2023 vibes!: Make an income doing something that fulfills me, is fun and makes an impact while being present for the most important times in my family's lives.

Once you realize your worth, you'll walk through a brick wall to get it.
