AN INTRODUCTION

Kenya Moses is a champion in business; and for over two decades she has spoken on stages, sharing knowledge with small, medium and large businesses and non-profit organizations. From her work as Founder and CEO of ConsciousMark, to her work as Speaker and Trainer, she makes a tremendous impact on the individuals and businesses that she shares her knowledge with, amplifying the vision and goals of every audience member.

In addition to Kenya's work as a business owner, marketing strategist, speaker and trainer, she is also a professional vocalist, and serves on committees and boards (The National Small Business Association Leadership Council, The San Francisco Unified School District Performing Arts Advisory Board and The Recording Academy (GRAMMYs) San Francisco Chapter Board), and has been featured in numerous media publications, including Thrive Global, Essence Magazine and more.
